Happy Fork

2019, 2'45''

It's a calm summer's day on the rocky ledge. Mr Raven is making a new birdhouse from corn husks while Koyaa prepares a summer picnic. The cloth is ready, the basket is set and a juicy homegrown tomato awaits. But since no day on the ledge is without a funny twist or two, the fork decides to fly off rather than play utensil. It buzzes around like a bee, looping out of Koyaa's way. Can he save his picnic with a bit of creative thinking?
